YOUR AID REACHED NEARLY A MILLION PEOPLE ACROSS THE MIDDLE EAST IN 2018!

Prolonged conflict and natural disaster have destroyed communities and economies that once thrived so well in the Middle East. The region is now experiencing great changes on a road to recovery while undergoing more challenges. In places such as Iraq, Yemen, Palestine, and Lebanon, IRUSA is working to empower countless families. We support millions of refugees on their path to recovery.

By implementing programs such as emergency food projects, water system development, and livelihood training for vulnerable women, IRUSA is helping to keep the Middle East moving forward.

Right now, in emergency zones like Syria and Yemen, the dedication of donors is also providing urgent medical aid, food supplies, shelter and more to those in need. It's through your compassion and your continued support that our brothers and sisters throughout the region know that they are not alone.

Thank you for being there for them during their most difficult times, and for building a legacy of service and hope across the Middle East.

AHMED'S STORY

SYRIA

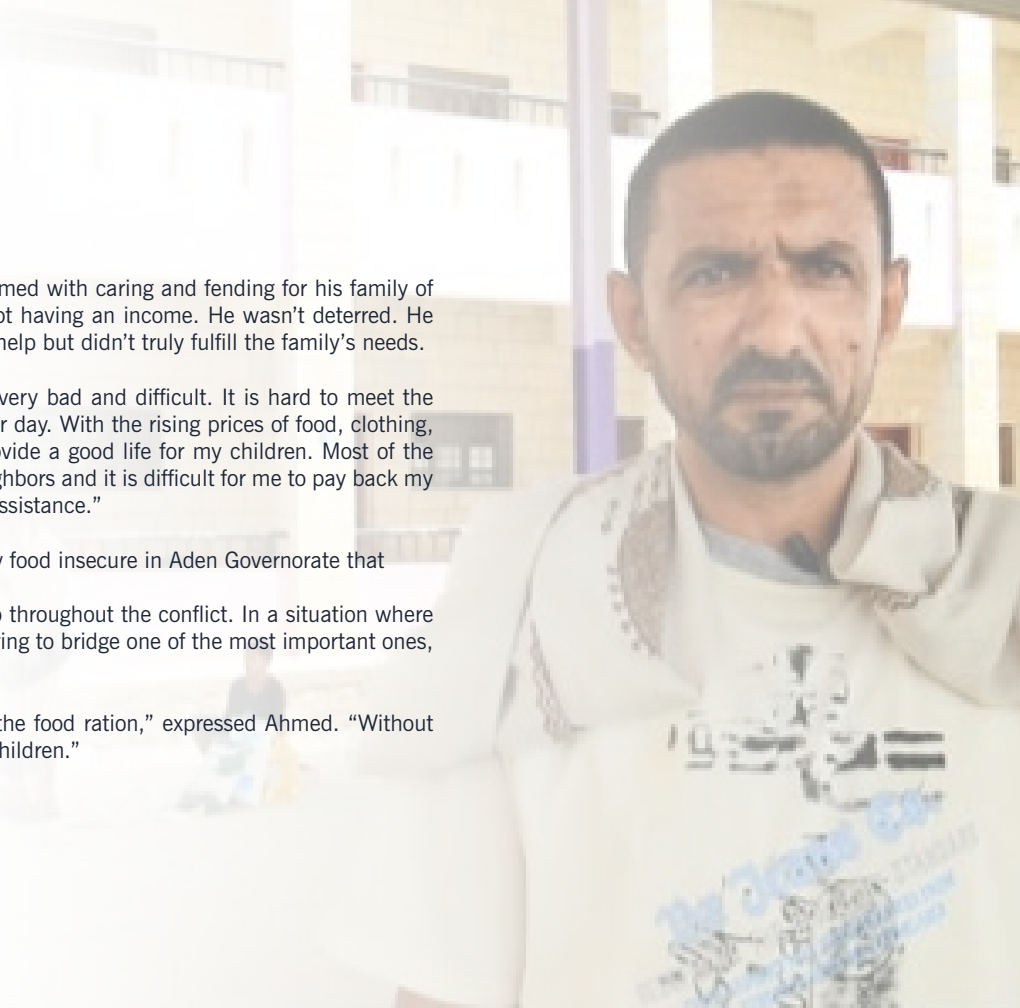

Ahmed Ali is nearing the age of 40. His day is consumed with caring and fending for his family of five. Ahmed fell upon hard times this past year by not having an income. He wasn't deterred. He began day labor to fill in the gaps. The money was a help but didn't truly fulfill the family's needs.

Ahmed explained: "These days living conditions are very bad and difficult. It is hard to meet the basic needs of my family as I earn a small amount per day. With the rising prices of food, clothing, and basic necessities, it became more difficult to provide a good life for my children. Most of the time I don't have enough money, so I borrow from neighbors and it is difficult for me to pay back my debts. To survive these days, I rely on humanitarian assistance."

It is precisely family's like Ahmed's who were severely food insecure in Aden Governorate that Islamic Relief has been distributing food assistance to throughout the conflict. In a situation where are countless gaps to be filled Islamic Relief is partnering to bridge one of the most important ones, hunger.

"I am grateful that Islamic Relief supported us with the food ration," expressed Ahmed. "Without this support, I would not have been able to feed my children."
