Dear Islamic Relief USA:

Ramadan Mubarak. As the holy month of Ramadan begins, I wish you and your loved ones peaceful reflection, eternal happiness and spiritual renewal.

Islamic Relief USA's work as the nation's largest Muslim humanitarian and advocacy organization is remarkable. From collaborations with social service organizations to helping to fund programs responding to communities impacted by the COVID-19 crisis, it is evident why Islamic Relief USA is so necessary.

This pandemic touches every race, gender and religion. As a result, we are witnessing Americans from all walks of life come together to help their fellow man. There is a renewed sense of brotherhood that has been ignited throughout our nation, exemplifying that we truly are all in this together. I have no doubt that we will remember this kinship for the rest of our lifetimes.

I pray that through this, Muslims, Christians and people from all faiths continue to learn from one other, share in our common values, and find strength in coming together. Ramadan Kareem.

Sincerely,

Al Lawson, Jr.
