Dear Friends,

I want to wish a joyous and peaceful Ramadan to all who are observing. Ramadan is a time of spiritual renewal, family gatherings, charitable activities and giving thanks to God for the good in life.

While we may not be able to all come together with our loved ones in the same way as years past, I sincerely hope that as many people as possible are able to come together remotely to share in the love and blessings of those closest to us.

I especially want to thank the Muslim American community for their incredible humanitarian and anti-poverty contributions during this challenging time.

We are all in this together, and every hand of assistance that is offered makes our entire community that much stronger.

We are all blessed by the hands that help us.

Ramadan Mubarak.

Sincerely,
