Dear Friends,

Greetings and Ramadan Mubarak on what we had hoped would be the 10th Annual Capitol Hill Interfaith Ramadan Dinner. Sadly, this horrific pandemic will not allow us to come together, but the spirit of the event remains strong. I hope you and your families are in good health as we work together to tackle our nation's many challenges.

I am so grateful for the work of Islamic Relief USA who has committed nearly $2 million to fund America's domestic response to the COVID-19 pandemic, with a particular focus on supporting anti-hunger and food security programs. Forty anti-hunger organizations across the United States, including several in Chicago, are benefiting from your work.

We have so much to do in the weeks and months ahead to tackle the challenge of this virus and get America back on its feet. I know that working together there is no challenge we cannot overcome. Thank you for all that you do.

Sincerely,
