Dear Friends,

I send you greetings for a joyous and happy Ramadan celebration! I hope you are all safe and well during this challenging and tragic coronavirus pandemic.

I am proud of the contributions of Muslim Americans to American life and culture, and I am especially pleased to learn that Islamic Relief USA has committed $1.9 million to fund COVID-19 response efforts in the United States, with a particular focus on supporting anti-hunger and food security programs. These funds are a continuation of Islamic Relief USA's efforts to help millions of people in need through humanitarian programs focused on hunger relief, poverty reduction, shelter, education, health care, and disaster relief in the United States and around the world.

Islamic Relief USA's Ramadan celebration is an excellent opportunity to provide recognition to Muslim Americans for the many, positive contributions they make every day to American society, and I am honored to be a part of it.

Sincerely,

Maxine Waters
