HELPING TO KEEP THE MIDDLE EAST MOVING FORWARD

YOUR AID REACHED NEARLY A MILLION PEOPLE ACROSS THE MIDDLE EAST IN 2019 !

Prolonged conflict and natural disaster have destroyed communities and economies that once thrived so well in the Middle East. The region is now experiencing great changes on a road to recovery while undergoing more challenges. In places such as Iraq, Yemen, Palestine, and Lebanon, IRUSA is working to empower countless families. We support millions of refugees on their path to recovery.

By implementing programs such as emergency food projects, water system development, and livelihood training for vulnerable women, IRUSA is helping to keep the Middle East moving forward.

Right now, in emergency zones like Syria and Yemen, the dedication of donors is also providing urgent medical aid, food supplies, shelter and more to those in need. It's through your compassion and your continued support that our brothers and sisters throughout the region know that they are not alone.

Thank you for being there for them during their most difficult times, and for building a legacy of service and hope across the Middle East.

ABLAH'S STORY PALESTINE

Ablah is intimately familiar with agricultural practices. She grows olive trees, as well as lettuce, cucumbers, tomatoes, parsley, and radishes on her land in the West Bank.

Ablah, 48, is a mother of four. Having no source of income, Ablah wanted to build a greenhouse to grow produce. She notes that a greenhouse made sense to build in the rural community where she lives.

“We keep in frequent contact with local traders about our crops. For example, if they know that I have two boxes of cucumbers, they would come immediately with the pickup trucks to buy them. It is a small village. We call a grocer and they collect the produce from the greenhouses every other day and send it to Nablus and Qalqilya.”
