

ANDRÉ CARSON
UNITED STATES CONGRESS

April 12, 2021

Asslamu-Alaikum:

It is my honor and privilege to wish 'Ramadan Mubarak' as we begin to observe Ramadan. As we move forward in the 117th Congress, I am proud to continue to represent all my constituents here in Indiana's 7th Congressional District as well champion for acceptance and understanding for our diverse Muslim community across the nation.

Ramadan serves as a time of spiritual reflection and renewal, an opportunity to honor God, engage with loved ones, and give back to our communities. The Muslim faith guides us to make a positive impact in our world, and the ongoing global pandemic certainly has provided many opportunities to care for one another through simple acts for the public good. I thank each of your personal sacrifices to stop the spread of COVID-19. We still have a long way to go, but I am confident we will soon come together in person to celebrate this most sacred time.

I also want to thank Islamic Relief USA for the financial support they have provided to our nation, and to my constituents, in the form of grants for food security and support programs. I am confident the Indianapolis Muslim Community Association, Coburn Place Safe Haven, Inc, Moms on the Move Inc, and Share Indianapolis, Inc, and the people they serve, truly appreciate your assistance.

On behalf of the 7th Congressional District of Indiana, I wish you a blessed Ramadan and best wishes for the year ahead.

Sincerely,
