Dear friends,

As the holy month of Ramadan begins, I wish Islamic Relief's staff, volunteers, and supporters and all Muslims in my Congressional District and across the country a Ramadan Mubarak. May your faith continue to be a source of hope and strength during this highly challenging time.

Throughout the last year, Islamic Relief has worked tirelessly to support more than 800,000 Americans suffering from the worst ramifications of the COVID-19 pandemic and economic downturn, continuing the 25-year tradition of providing vital humanitarian assistance to those who need it most. I'm especially grateful for your important work in disaster response across the U.S., including the devastating wildfires in California.

Your devotion to serving others is a source of inspiration to me, especially during a time of crisis, and may this Ramadan month bring every blessing to each of you, your families, and our country. I look forward to when we will be able to celebrate together once more.

Warm regards,
