Dear Friends,

Ramadan Mubarak! While this year may be different, we are reminded of what the Holy Month of Ramadan is truly about: reflection, prayer, charity, and community.

As we enter the month of Ramadan, I am pleased to recognize the Islamic Relief USA (IRUSA) for their tireless work and dedication to assisting families in need in my home state of Michigan and across the nation. Even during these difficult times, Islamic Relief USA continues to demonstrate a strong commitment to one of Islam's most sacred pillars: helping the most vulnerable through their humanitarian and anti-poverty work. I am deeply appreciative of your commitment to our community regardless of gender, race, or religion.

I applaud the work of Islamic Relief USA and will continue to stand in firm solidarity with Muslim-American communities throughout the United States. Once again, on behalf of Michigan's 14th Congressional District, please accept my best wishes during this sacred holiday and much success in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Brenda L. Lawrence
