Ramadan Mubarak Mr. Sharif,

I wish you and all our friends at Islamic Relief USA, “Ramadan Mubarak” as you begin this holy season of fasting and reflection. Especially this year, when so many of our fellow Americans and families across the globe have experienced loss due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is important to open our hearts, appreciate the blessings in our lives, and express our gratitude.

I want to thank the leaders, staff, volunteers, and supporters of Islamic Relief USA for your generosity and support of those in need. The aid and resources that you provide to those experiencing disasters and those who struggle with daily challenges, deliver a message of warmth and caring that brings them hope for brighter days.

Congratulations on the 10th Celebration of Ramadan Capitol Hill tribute. I join you in praying for a more peaceful, kind, and caring world for all.

Sincerely,
