Dear Friends,

I write to wish everyone at Islamic Relief USA Ramadan Mubarak as you observe this holy month. After two years of so much hardship and loss, I hope you find this Ramadan to be a time of spiritual renewal, gathering with family and giving thanks for the good in life.

I have seen how resilient, compassionate, and charitable the Muslim American community has been throughout this pandemic and the resulting economic downturn. Your charitable and voluntary acts have been a lifeline to so many in our community who have been hit the hardest, and I can't thank you enough for your work to end poverty, hunger and suffering in our country.

I hope you all have a safe and healthy Ramadan, and I look forward to our continued partnership as we work to build a stronger, more equitable America.

Sincerely,
