Dear friends,

As the holy month of Ramadan begins, I wish Islamic Relief USA's staff, volunteers, supporters and all Muslims in my Congressional District and across the country a Ramadan Mubarak. May your Ramadan be a peaceful time of spiritual reflection.

For nearly three decades, Islamic Relief USA has advocated for social justice and provided critical humanitarian assistance to those who need it most. I'm especially grateful for your extraordinary work to provide meals, housing, healthcare, and other services to more than 37,000 Afghan refugees who recently settled in our communities.

Your devotion to serving others is a source of inspiration to me, and I hope this Ramadan month will bring every blessing to each of you, your families, and our country.

Warm regards,
