Dear Islamic Relief USA:

As the Holy Month of Ramadan begins, I write to extend my best wishes to Muslim communities in Michigan, across the United States, and around the world. For many, this month is about reflection, prayer, charity, and community.

The past several years have been particularly challenging due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the alarming rise of hate crimes and bigotry. And yet, despite these challenging times, the Muslim community, and especially Islamic Relief USA, have stepped up to serve every person in need – here in Michigan and across the U.S. Just as President Joe Biden has said, I firmly believe that no one in America should ever have to live in fear of their faith.

I applaud the work of Islamic Relief USA and will continue to stand in firm solidarity with Muslim-American communities throughout the United States. I am deeply appreciative of your commitment to our community regardless of gender, race, or religion.

Once again, on behalf of Michigan's 14th Congressional District, please accept my best wishes during this sacred holiday and much success in the years to come. Ramadan Kareem!

Warmest Regards,

Brenda L. Lawrence
