Dear Friends,

Ramadan Mubarak! I extend my warmest greetings to the Muslim American community in Rhode Island and across the United States as you begin the holy month of Ramadan. I hope that you find peace and spiritual renewal during this time of reflection.

Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, I have been incredibly proud of the tireless work Islamic Relief USA has done to support our neighbors and our communities as we battle this virus. The assistance organizations such as Islamic Relief USA have provided has benefitted thousands of struggling families throughout the country. This charitable spirit, embodied by both Islamic Relief USA and the larger Muslim American community, is a primary reason our communities are building back stronger from this pandemic.

As you begin this holy month, I want to highlight the extraordinary contributions of the Muslim American community both in Rhode Island and across the country. Thank you for your dedication to our communities, friends, and family, and for making our state and our country a better place every day.

Wishing you all a meaningful and holy month of Ramadan.

Sincerely,
