Dear Friends,

I want to wish a happy and blessed Ramadan to Islamic Relief and the Muslim families near and far. The Holy month of Ramadan is an excellent reminder of our duty to serve our communities and give thanks for all we have. I am immensely proud of all the humanitarian efforts IRUSA supports through various partner organizations in Northern Virginia that alleviate poverty and hunger. Navigating the third year into the Pandemic would not be possible without your work. Last year IRUSA provided support to 150 communities and social services organizations nationwide that respond to the food security, healthcare access, and financial assistance needs of Americans struggling to make ends meet.

I also want to applaud you on your work to help resettle 4,000 Afghan evacuees, many of whom you helped make the 8th district home with aid. In times of crisis and uncertainty, your job is immeasurable.

I am proud that the Islamic Relief USA's national office is located in Alexandria as a part of Virginia Eighth's Congressional District. I want to continue to offer my support as you tackle discrimination and advocate for interfaith collaborations with other religious groups.

Sincerely,

Donald S. Beyer Jr.
Member of Congress
