Dear Friends,

It is my great pleasure to wish the Muslim community in our 32nd District and across the country a blessed and safe Ramadan. With a trying year behind us and uncertain days ahead, I hope this holy month of prayer and fasting is filled with self-reflection, spiritual renewal, and peace.

I also want to take a moment to thank Islamic Relief USA for their continued contributions in the face of the COVID-19 pandemic. I congratulate IRUSA, whose Ramadan Food Box & Pantry Grants will fund over 40 pantries across the country and deliver 11,000 food boxes in 70 cities across 25 states, including California. We applaud these extraordinary humanitarian and anti-poverty efforts, which have helped maintain critical food security, healthcare access, domestic violence response, and financial assistance programs in our San Gabriel Valley and communities across America.

With hope and gratitude, as we all work together to move beyond this pandemic and pray for world peace, Ramadan Mubarak!

Sincerely,

Grace F. Napolitano
