Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that I send you this greeting at the beginning of Ramadan. I understand the importance of Ramadan to Muslim Americans and Muslims around the world.

I want to commend Islamic Relief USA for all of the humanitarian work that it does – and express my appreciation for the charitable work that it has done in Pennsylvania's 18th Congressional District. I especially want to comment IRUSA for the efforts it is currently undertaking to address food insecurity in our community. Even now, with the economy growing again, the need for food assistance is great – and Islamic Relief USA's support for domestic anti-hunger programs is much-appreciated.

I wish all Muslim Americans a safe and joyous Ramadan.

Ramadan Mubarak!

Sincerely,
