Dear Friends,

Ramadan Mubarak! Sending my best wishes during this holy time to Islamic Relief USA's (IRUSA) and everyone celebrating Ramadan across the country.

These past couple of years have posed many challenges for us as we have continued to endure the COVID-19 pandemic. Thankfully, Ramadan, a time of spiritual renewal, offers a chance to reflect and look forward to what is to come. Ramadan is also a time of community, and I wish you all the rich blessings of family and friends in this important month.

My district of San Jose, California is home to a vibrant community of Muslim-Americans. Ramadan offers a chance to recognize the many contributions of Muslim-Americans across all sectors of American life and recommit to the fundamental American values of inclusion and religious freedom.

As the pandemic has carried on IRUSA has continued incredible humanitarian work in both the U.S. and around the world. From providing food aid to aiding refugees, your service to others is an inspiration, especially during these difficult times.

I wish you all a happy and blessed month of Ramadan.

Sincerely,
