Dear Friends,

Heidi and I send greetings to those who are celebrating the end of Ramadan and looking forward to a blessed time of family and community this Eid al-Fitr. We hope it has been a month of great reflection and prayer.

As we reflect on the life-changing work done when Texans are driven by service and compassion, may we all have open hands and hearts for our neighbor and the strangers among us who are in need. I pray that each of you and the Great State of Texas will be enriched by the spirit of charity, forgiveness, and community that concludes this time of fasting and reflection. May this Eid al-Fitr be a one of great joy and love.

Sincerely,

Ted Cruz
United States Senator
