Dearest Friends:

Ramadan Mubarak! I wish you prosperity, happiness, and peace in this blessed month.

The Muslim American community has a rich history dating back to our nation's founding, and Muslim Americans have been integral to our nation's success since its earliest days. As we reflect on our faith and service to others during Ramadan, I want to highlight the ways in which Muslim Americans have uplifted communities of all faiths across the United States. From mobilizing financial assistance, healthcare access, and refugee support, the Muslim American community has worked tirelessly to make our community a better place, and to provide the charity and service that is in accordance with the pillars of their faith. I see this every day in Minnesota's 3rd district, where Muslim community associations are leaders in charitable giving, community service, and advocacy. Their leadership and dedication to strengthening our community are part of the reason I'm so proud to be from Minnesota, and a testament to the diversity that is one of Islam, and America's greatest strengths.

On behalf of Minnesota's 3rd district, I wish you all a fulfilling Ramadan!

Sincerely,

Dean Phillips
