Dear Friends,

Ramadan Mubarak!

It is a pleasure to send my warmest greetings to you as this holy season commences. Ramadan is a time for the community to come together in reflection, worship, and prayer. It is in these spaces that we find growth in ourselves, along with gratitude and compassion for those in the world around us.

Thank you to my friends at Islamic Relief for their hard work and dedication to uplifting underserved and vulnerable communities. The generosity, prayers, and commitment to humanitarian action provided by our Muslim American community cannot be understated.

I would like to extend best wishes to those in the United States and around the world who are observing this holy month and express my heartfelt respect to all on this important occasion. Wishing everyone health, safety, and meaningful worship.

Sincerely,
