Dear Friends,

As we approach the holy month of Ramadan this Spring, I want to say Ramadan Mubarak to those celebrating near and far. I am proud to represent Texas' Seventh Congressional District, a district with a large and vibrant Muslim community, and thankful to Islamic Relief USA for your consistent support and commitment over the last 25 years.

Your contributions have been a huge help to families, friends, and neighbors throughout the United States and the positive impacts of your assistance, particularly in times of crisis, is deeply appreciated. In my district, Islamic Relief USA has provided direct support to Amaanah Refugee Services and Shifa Healthcare & Community Services USA, two groups working to empower and improve their communities, one person at a time.

Our Muslim American friends inspire others in showing their devotion and commitment to faith, and our communities are all the better for it. I wish you and your families strength, peace, and hope in your time of reflection and worship this coming month. Ramadan Kareem!

Sincerely,
