Dear Friends,

Ramadan Mubarak! It is with great pleasure that I wish a peaceful and meaningful Ramadan to the Muslim community celebrating in California's 46th Congressional District and around the world.

This holy month is a time for family togetherness, spiritual renewal, and service to those in need. Throughout the year, the Muslim-American community embodies the charitable spirit of Ramadan. I am honored to represent a district with such a vibrant and active Muslim community who everyday makes Orange County stronger through their faith, friendship, and kindness. I thank Islamic Relief USA and other Muslim aid organizations for their tireless dedication to ending food insecurity and uplifting people from poverty. Through our shared commitment to community, charity, and compassion, we can make our world a better place.

May this holy month be a time of blessings, reflections, and celebrations for our Muslim family, friends, and neighbors. On behalf of California's 46th Congressional District, Ramadan Kareem!

Sincerely,

J. Luis Correa
