CHARITY STARTS AT HOME—IRUSA NEVER FORGETS NEIGHBORS IN NEED

Racial inequity, homelessness, poverty, and the effects of climate change are just a few issues Americans face on a daily basis. And now, inflation is on the rise as food and gas prices are soaring, exacerbating an already difficult circumstance for families across the country. As Islam teaches us, charity starts at home, and that's why Islamic Relief USA is dedicated to supporting work across the US that provides families with the tools to succeed.

IRUSA has been providing humanitarian aid to families in the US since its founding in 1993. Our projects directly address critical issues facing the country including food insecurity, access to healthcare, disaster relief, and more recently, refugee resettlement.

Thanks to the support of donors like you, we're able to help make a difference here at home. The following pages highlight just a few of our current, country-wide projects.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE FROM COAST TO COAST

Did you know that Islamic Relief USA has seven regional offices across the United States? Our locations near major cities mean even greater impact for those we serve. They also increase effectiveness when it comes to program implementation, seasonal projects, and fund development.

NO MATTER THE SEASON, IRUSA IS THERE

More than 46 million people, including 16 million children, live in poverty in the United States. Islamic Relief USA is working to help alleviate the suffering of our neighbors across the country. IRUSA's flagship day of service, Day of Dignity, is an opportunity for our volunteers to provide essential services to communities in need through interventions such as serving hot nutritious meals; providing essential items such as clothing and hygiene kits; offering haircuts to those unable to afford them; and so much more. In certain circumstances, even free medical care and screenings are offered.

RAMADAN

Ramadan is a holy month for Muslims, celebrating through acts of worship like fasting during daylight hours, sharing meals, and increased charitable giving. As an Islamic organization, Ramadan is a particularly special time for the Islamic Relief USA family. With a large Muslim donor base, the spirituality and generosity of the Ramadan season is deeply felt. This is why our donations are amplified in Ramadan. During the holy month, we place special focus on fighting food insecurity around the world and right here at home in the United States. In the US, we prioritize families living with hunger through distributing food boxes.

QURBANI

In Islam, Eid al-Adha is the celebration of the end of the Hajj pilgrimage. During this time, Qurbani/ Udhiyah, or “sacrifice” is the tradition of sharing meat with one’s family and those in need. In the US, we distribute Qurbani/Udhiyah to people suffering from hunger. These distributions allow Muslims living in America to participate in the joy and festivities of the Eid Al-Adha holiday, despite their difficult financial circumstances.

TURKEY DISTRIBUTIONS

Every Thanksgiving, millions of families across the country gather around their tables and enjoy a delicious turkey meal. For many families, however, the cost of participating in the joy of the holiday is unfortunately too high. That's why every November, Islamic Relief USA hosts turkey distributions in cities across the country. Our packages include not only turkey, but various different sides for families struggling with food insecurity to enjoy together.

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE

Islamic Relief USA strives to increase access to food and support those struggling throughout not only the school year, but the summer as well. According to a report from the Food Research Action Center, only one in six students receive free or reduced-price meals over the summer. That's why IRUSA is a proud supporter of the USDA's Summer Food Service Program, a program dedicated to combat food insecurity by providing safe spaces for children in need to receive meals during their summer break.

We work to provide aid to marginalized groups, including children in need, the elderly, refugees, and people suffering from homelessness and food insecurity.

THE POWER OF ADVOCACY

Vital to Islamic Relief USA achieving its humanitarian mission are our advocacy campaigns, non-partisan government engagement, and direct lobbying on Capitol Hill. Through these efforts, IRUSA works to build the public and political will to end poverty, hunger, and inequality – enhanced by the coordinated efforts of our national network of IRUSAdvocates. Our goal is to inform and mobilize IRUSAdvocates through coordinated actions that advances our shared priorities. Outreach such as social media, emails, and direct calls to elected officials allows them to raise important humanitarian concerns that require responses from their Members of Congress, government officials, and social influencers. Through these strategic and coordinated campaigns, IRUSAdvocates are holding public officials accountable for their responsibility to improve the conditions and resources of communities inflicted by insecurity and limited opportunity.

WELCOMING OUR NEWLY-ARRIVED AFGHAN NEIGHBORS

Islamic Relief USA has joined a network of organizations helping to welcome and resettle Afghan refugees across the US. As part of this special program, IRUSA will recruit, vet, and train community partners who will commit to providing key services and financial support to newly-arrived Afghans in their communities for at least the first 90 days of resettlement. Through our partner network, we are disbursing hundreds of thousands of dollars to aid more than 37,000 Afghans by providing access to their most basic needs including hot meals, food vouchers, shelter, rental assistance, medical support, mental health support, cash assistance, legal consultations, ESL [English as a Second Language] classes, and job trainings.
