PROJECT SPOTLIGHT: Economic Empowerment for Vulnerable Communities in Somalia

Islamic Relief is working to help vulnerable communities including women and youth improve their socioeconomic status through small business development and sustainable livelihood support. This includes forming self-help groups [SHGs] trained on sector-specific cooperatives such as poultry, livestock, crop farming, etc., as well as bookkeeping and financial literacy, through which members can improve their vocational skills; increase their access to government and financial institutions; and help build their communities for themselves and for generations to come.
